

I strongly support the idea of increasing the technical content required for amateur radio licenses. I had hoped that during the last restructuring this would have been implemented.

I do not support the idea of continuing morse code as a requirement for ANY amateur radio license class.